JURY DEMAND
FEDERAL RULES CIVIL PROCEDURE RULE 5)d)

NOW COMES Paul C. Mathis who moves the honorable Court on the above entitled cause for a Jury Trial

TO WIT:

This matter dates July 27, 2007 where defendant(s) Agent entered into a Consent Agreement. From that date of more than (4) years this matter has been tossed from judge to judge, in all that time; defendants have made NO attempt file a response to Petitioners demand for Payment of this Claim(Exhibit 1A).

It appears that the only way to properly adjudicate this matter is to have a Jury Trial on the Merits of this cruel and unusual matter is for a jury to decide it "this is a political matter"

KNOWLEDGE IS POWER, AND A SLAVE TO THE TRUTH :

DEFAULT JUDGMENT BY DEFENDANTS 837 F. Supp 1312; 22 F,3rd at 27-28

Defendant(s) have NOT filed a response; in over ((4) Years it's unclear, how the Court could allow them to file anything in this matter see Santos v Murdock, 243 F3rd 681, 683(2d Cir 2001). Defendant(s) have yet, to prove that no issue of genuine fact; as to why the Judgment has NOT been Satisfied to this date; every law or statute holds that every day that the judgment has not been satisfied then every day thereafter is the first day of the judgment entered by the Court 187 N.W 2d 845, 847 Erisa Act of 1974 § 3000 infra also compells the Court to order a Jury Trial in this matter; this is a matter of Health and Welfare no to be taken lightly by the Judicial System 28 U.S.C. § 1331; Demery v Extenbank Deferred Compensation Plan, 216 F3rd 286, 290(2d Cir 2000); 42 U.S.C. § 2000-E-28 U.S.C.
1346(a)(1)-26 U.S.C. § 1 see also green v Montgomery 219 F3rd 52.55(2d Cir 2000

Further there is no remedies to exhaust in this case Constitutional protection does not fade with time; it only shows that justice is grossly lacking Lee v Habib, 424 F.2d 891(DC Cir 1970); CF Pattern v DEnnis, 134 F2d 137, 138(9th Cir 1943 46 A.2d 137, 141 of Terry 274-482 a.2d at 464 for the reason and more the Court must, in the interest order a Jury Trial in this Matter forthwith.
see 105 P.2d 342,345- 42 U.S.C. § 1983 Cole v General Motors, 641 F.Supp 28 Cases cited for relief for Paul C. Mathis(a Contract is legal and binding if this Court looks closer; it will find that defendants certification of no objection has NO merit on its face, laws on satisfied judgment control!

STARE DECISIS

(HEARING HELD) THE AWARD JUDGMENT IS OPEN: AND THIS IS ONE OF THE REASONS IT'S OPEN QUESTION HOW DOES SOCIAL SECURITY EFFECT FURTHER COMPENSATION PAYMENTS

. . . if respondents had paid the judgment that still runs legally on the judgment of 1990 workers disability claim; Court Ordered modification (Exhibit 1A) was Never paid on the Order, When Defendant(s) Agent saw that Paul C. Mathis had no Counsel for some time. I geuss, they said to there self why pay this, he, can;t possibly no how to attack us oh no

Court have been handling colateral attack on judgment some examples
Webb v Hass 1999 Me 74,-5 728 A.2d 1261; cook v Cook, 574 A.2d 1353(Me 1990);
Morse Bros,. Inc. v Webster, 2000 Me 70-14, 772 A2d 842

Assuming that the court reasonable;. . . for the judgment to be closed the Claim; would have too be Satisfied, no such paper exist, and prior Counsel COULD NOT . . . Knowingly Waive: for Mr. Mathis, Where the Constutitional Protection exist Only Mr. Mathis can waive: such a Right . Further, Defendant(s) are subject to that Order for Modification, and the effects of Retroactive Application. for manny reasons the court must remand this cause to the department of justice, or order a Jury Trial!

Dear Mr. Mathis:

This is in reply to your inquiry concerning court ordered payment of benefits. In your letter, you state that General Motors has not paid you your workers' compensation that was awarded to you by the State of Michigan.

This office is responsible for administering the Employee Retirement Income Security Act (ERISA). ERISA protects the pension and employee benefits of participants of private-sector plans. ERISA specifically excludes any plan maintained solely for the purpose of complying with state workers' compensation laws.

It appears that your letter is about a workers' compensation claim that is not covered by an employee benefit plan under ERISA. Therefore, ERISA would not apply to your situation. Any claims or inquiries you may have should be directed to the State of Michigan's government agency or courts that administers the workers' compensation program from which you are seeking benefits.

I hope this information is helpful to you.

Sincerely,

William C. Barron

Dear Mr. Mathis:

This is in response to your inquiry, received by this office on April 15, 2010, regarding the payment of workers' compensation disability for an injury that occurred on October 10, 1984 while employed with the General Motors Company.

As we have previously advised you, this office is responsible for administering the Employee Retirement Income Security Act (ERISA). ERISA protects the pension and employee benefits of participants of private-sector plans. ERISA specifically excludes any plan maintained solely for the purpose of complying with state workers' compensation laws.

Further, it is my understanding that you sent a letter to the Employee Benefits Security Administration National Office located in Washington, D.C. On November 16, 2009, that Office sent you their response stating that your inquiry should be directed to the State of Michigan's government agency that administers the workers' compensation program.

In an effort to be of assistance, we are providing the information for the State of Michigan's government agency that administers workers' compensation. The state program is under the Department of Energy, Labor and Economic Growth. You may want to address your inquiry to:
